Message to Families

Dear Families,

I wanted to say a huge thank you for all your support this year and for everything you have done to help your child to be successful.

I wish you all a safe and enjoyable summer.

Best wishes

Mr Sanderson

Attendance

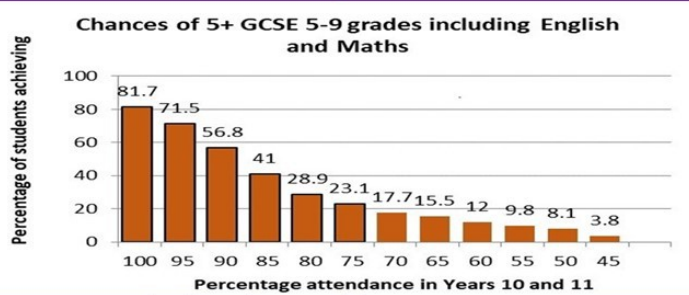

Attendance remains a focus for every school. Our biggest gift to your child is their education. We need every student to attend on time, every day so that we can provide them with the knowledge and skills they need to achieve exceptional results and fulfill their ambitious life choices.

Thank you for ensuring that you do not arrange any holidays during term time and that your child attends school every day ready to learn.

We expect 100% attendance. We know this will benefit your child and your family.

Good attendance gives the best chance of success to our young people. Good school attendance is vitally important to allow all students to achieve their full potential to embed characteristics of excellence in industry and work ethic which form a big part of our school values. In turn this has a significant impact on GCSE exam grades, contributing to social and economic well being in adulthood.

The graph below shows national research, on the importance of attendance on GCSE outcomes. Whilst an attendance of 90% may not seem that low, this research showed that it can reduce your child's chances of achieving 5+ GCSEs at grade 5-9 including English and Maths from around 82% to 57%. Therefore, it is vital that your child attends school every single day to maximise their educational experience, making every second count!

Student leadership & Citizen UK London Trip

Methodist Central Hall in Westminster was buzzing with energy and purpose as students from the Student Leadership Group joined a gathering of delegations from across Citizens UK to celebrate the alliance's many successes over the past year. The event brought together leaders from various sectors, including students, community groups, and faith organisations, to acknowledge the strong relationships built with key decision-makers across the country.

The celebration marked a momentous occasion for Citizens UK, as it reflected on its collective achievements and re-committed to working with those elected officials who will form the next Government. The gathering also served as a powerful reminder that citizens' voices must be heard and respected in the decision-making process.

As elected MPs joined the celebration, attendees took the opportunity to thank them for their public service while also emphasising that citizens deserve a seat at the table of power. The event featured presentations from leaders involved in Citizens UK's national action teams, highlighting their work in driving positive change and promoting democratic participation.

"We are proud of what we have achieved together," said a representative from Citizens UK. "But we know that our work is far from over. As we look to the future, we are calling on all those elected to form the next Government to prioritize democratic participation and ensure that citizens' voices are heard."

The gathering was a testament to the power of collective action and the impact that can be achieved when individuals come together to demand change. As the new Government takes shape, Citizens UK remains committed to its mission of promoting democracy, social justice, and human rights.

DAA and D6A P16 - Cambridge Residential

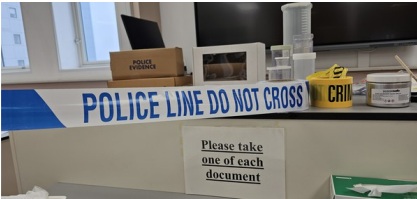

A group of students from DAA P16 and D6A recently embarked on a residential to Cambridge, where they got a taste of university life. On their first day, they attended the University of Cambridge's Open Day, where they were able to explore the various colleges and faculties on offer. The group then visited Girton College, where they spoke with current students and got an insight into student life at the prestigious institution. The students then took a tour of Queens' College, followed by lunch in the historic college canteen. After lunch, the students had the opportunity to explore Cambridge at their leisure, taking in the city's iconic landmarks and picturesque surroundings. To cap off their trip the students enjoyed a nice punting trip. The student spent the night in student accommodation, getting a glimpse of what it would be like to live away from home during their university years.

P16 Trip to Bradford Uni Criminology Department

In a unique and immersive learning experience, students spent a day playing the role of forensic officers, tasked with solving a mock murder mystery. The day began at a simulated crime scene, where the students were tasked with gathering evidence and collecting clues to aid in the investigation. Once they had completed their task at the crime scene, they headed to the forensic lab, where they put their detective skills to the test.

Working alongside experienced forensic scientists, the students analysed the evidence they had collected, using cutting-edge technology and techniques to identify potential suspects and piece together the events of the crime. This hands-on experience provided a valuable insight into the world of forensic science and allowed the students to develop their critical thinking and problem-solving skills in a real-world scenario.

Design Lab Nation Art Project

Year 8 Students have been at the forefront of the V&A's DesignLab Nation initiative, a groundbreaking programme that brings design education to secondary schools across the country. For over a year, the students have been involved in a series of workshops at the V&A in London and the National Industrial Museum in Bradford. The culmination of their hard work was celebrated at a special ceremony at the National Industrial Museum, where their artwork was showcased for all to see.

The students were thrilled to take a tour of their displayed designs, beaming with pride as they saw their creations take centre stage. The experience was a testament to the impact that DesignLab Nation has had on the students, providing them with a unique opportunity to develop their skills and creativity in a real-world setting.

The collaboration between DAA and DesignLab Nation has not only honed the students' design skills but has also given them a deeper appreciation for the importance of industrial heritage and design in their community. As they looked around at their displayed artwork, it was clear that this experience will have a lasting impact on their future careers and creative pursuits.

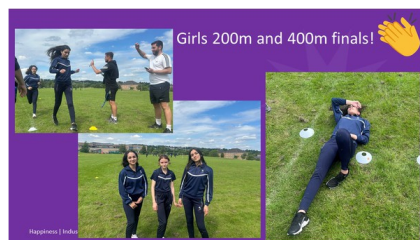

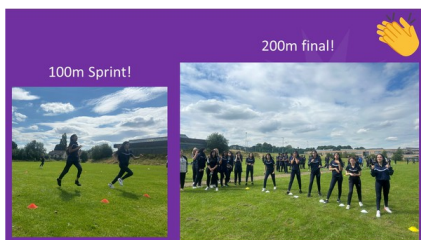

P16 BTEC Sport Golf Trip

In a unique team-building exercise, P16 BTEC Sport spent the day on the golf course, and it was a resounding success. Despite some initial nerves, the students threw themselves into the activity. The golf trip was designed to promote team building among the students, and it certainly achieved that and more. As they navigated the course, they learned valuable lessons about perseverance, communication, and trust in each other.

Barclays Guest Speaker

On Thursday 18th July all Year 10 students were given a talk by Peter Harvey, the former CEO of Barclays Corporate and Commercial Bank.

The talk was about leadership, resilience, and attitude; this was followed by a Q&A session, where many of the students were able to ask Peter questions directly about his successful career. It was a truly inspiring event, all students enjoyed the chance to listen to Peter's experiences and they were able to take away lots of great advice on how to ensure they can all become successful in their future careers.
